St Cainnech/Kenneth (c516–600AD) was an Irish abbot, monastic founder, priest and missionary during the early medieval period. Cainnech is one of the Twelve Apostles of Ireland and preached Christianity across Ireland. In 565AD Cainnech joined Columba in Scotland and went onto evangelise the Picts. St Kenneth was the founder of a church and monastery in what now St Andrews the ruined Abbey of Cambuskenneth, just outside of Stirling, which still bears his name.

Pope St John XXIII 1881 -1963

Pope of the Second Vatican Council

"Man has the right to live. He has the right to bodily integrity and to the means necessary for the proper development of life, particularly food, clothing, shelter, medical care, rest, and, finally, the necessary social services. In consequence, he has the right to be looked after in the event of ill health; disability stemming from his work; widowhood; old age; enforced unemployment; or whenever through no fault of his own he is deprived of the means of livelihood." Pacem in terris

MissioScotland
The Pontifical Mission Societies
World Mission Month

Missio—through the Pontifical Mission Societies—operates in over 160 countries to support initiatives in 1100 dioceses on five continents. Grassroots needs are identified by local Catholics, to give people the opportunity for a full, enriched life—physically and spiritually— regardless of race, stigma, religion or gender. Mission in action happens right now and for generations, to help people immediately, longer term and eternally. We engage in mission when we proclaim our faith through our words, actions and lives.
