Archbishop's Letter - in the porch

Change is on the way. The Archbishop tells us that this is so - but does not tell us what the changes are and how they will affect us! I have the feeling however that they will affect us and sooner than I hoped. Fr B

Charity Bingo

Saturday 3rd March 7.00pm
Then first Fridays until July

Choir Practice Wednesdays
after Stations of the Cross

No Mass etc. Next Saturday 3rd March

My apologies for this but one of my new roles is to sit on the National Commission for Justice and Peace presided over by Bishop Bill Nolan of Galloway Diocese. These meetings take place 4 times per year and mostly at a distance. This time the meeting is in Glasgow and begins at 11.00am. The next will be on 9th of June. I will do my best to get cover for that Saturday.

LENTEN ALMSGIVING

Many thanks to those of you who donated food in the last week. It is always heartening to see your generosity to those who are less fortunate than ourselves. Each week members of the SSVP take the donated goods to the foodbank – my thanks to them for their time.

OLOLYP would like to thank Father Basil, all the Parishioners and their friends and family, that came along to see our production of Little Shop Of Horrors at The Brunton theatre. The show was a huge success and we look forward to celebrating our 30th year in 2019.

OLOLYP gives all our children a chance to showcase their talent and couldn't continue without your support. Our next show will be announced soon. Please get in touch if you wish to become a Friend of OLOLYP, or if your child is aged between 10 and 18 and would like to join us.
