Pipe Organ Restoration

I have asked for the ribs and the leather to be ordered. This will take some time as the leather comes from the USA. Once here the work can begin but given Covid 19 and then the Christmas holidays that may not happen this side of the New Year. This gives us some time to put a fund together. If donating directly to the bank please indicate – ORGAN FUND.

M&F Funeral Services have very generously donated £500 towards our appeal which is very good of them. My thanks to Kirsten & the staff at M&F Musselburgh.

Fr Hugh Purcell RIP.

What can I say? As many of you will now know Fr Hugh died at some point at the start of the week and was discovered on Tuesday. A PM will be carried out to ascertain the cause of his death. I will offer Holy Mass for him on Tuesday evening at 6.30pm. Even if you are unable to come please pray for him and his family at that time. May he rest in peace. Pre-Registration Required

Keeping each other safe. You are asked to wear a mask and to sanitise as you enter and leave the church. Fill up from the front. Unless all in a family unit, no more than 3 people in a row. When coming out for Holy Communion keep 2 meters apart. After every Mass and at the end of each weekday the Church is sanitised. Many thanks for your co-operation.

OUR LADY OF LORETTO & ST MICHAEL MUSSELBURGH

FIRST READING A reading from the prophet Isaiah (25:6-10)

On this mountain,
the Lord of hosts will prepare for all people
a banquet of rich food, a banquet of fine wines,
of food rich and juicy, of fine strained wines.

On this mountain he will remove
the mourning veil covering all peoples,
and the shroud enwrapping all nations,
he will destroy Death for ever.

The Lord will wipe away
the tears from every cheek;
he will take away his people's shame
everywhere on earth,
for the Lord has said so.

That day, it will be said: See, this is our God
in whom we hoped for salvation;
the Lord is the one in whom we hoped.

We exult and we rejoice
that he has saved us;
for the hand of the Lord
rests on this mountain. The word of the Lord.

R. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where he gives me repose.
Near restful waters he leads me,
to revive my drooping spirit. R.

He guides me along the right path;
he is true to his name.
If I should walk in the valley of darkness
no evil would I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff;
with these you give me comfort. R.

You have prepared a banquet for me
in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing. R.

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me
all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell
for ever and ever. R.

SECOND READING A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians (4:12-14,19-20)

I know how to be poor and I know how to be rich too. I have been through my initiation and now I am ready for anything anywhere: full stomach or empty stomach, poverty and plenty. There is nothing I cannot master with the help of the One who gives me strength. All the same, it was good of you to share with me in my hardships. In return my God will fulfil all your needs, in Christ Jesus, as lavishly as only God can. Glory to God, our Father, for ever and ever. Amen. The word of the Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia! The Word has made flesh and lived among us; to all who did accept him he gave power to become children of God. Alleluia!

GOSPEL A reading from holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a feast for his son's wedding. He sent his servants to call those who had been invited, but they would not come. Next he sent some more servants. "Tell those who have been invited" he said "that I have my banquet all prepared, my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, everything is ready. Come to the wedding." But they were not interested: one went off to his farm, another to his business, and the rest seized his servants, maltreated them and killed them. The king was furious. He despatched his troops, destroyed those murderers and burnt their town. Then he said to his servants, "The wedding is ready; but as those who were invited proved to be unworthy, go to the crossroads in the town and invite everyone you can find to the wedding." So these servants went out on to the roads and collected together everyone they could find, bad and good alike; and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

When the king came in to look at the guests he noticed one man who was not wearing a wedding garment, and said to him, "How did you get in here, my friend, without a wedding garment?" And the man was silent. Then the king said to the attendants, "Bind him hand and foot and throw him out into the dark, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth." For many are called, but few are chosen.' The Gospel of the Lord.
