OUR LADY OF LORETTO & ST MICHAEL MUSSELBURGH

*They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We will remember them.*

For the Fallen Laurence Binyon

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May they rest in peace.

May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed through the Mercy of God rest in peace. Amen

Silence

You are King of Glory and Prince of Peace

Lord have Mercy, Lord have Mercy

You are our Reconciliation and Healing

Christ have Mercy, Christ have Mercy

You are Grace and Compassion

Lord Have Mercy, Lord have Mercy

FIRST READING A reading from the book of Wisdom (6:12-16)

Wisdom is bright, and does not grow dim.

By those who love her she is readily seen,
and found by those who look for her.

Quick to anticipate those who desire her, she makes herself known to them. Watch for her early and you will have no trouble; you will find her sitting at your gates.

Even to think about her is understanding fully grown;
be on the alert for her and anxiety will quickly leave you.

She herself walks about looking for those who are worthy of her and graciously shows herself to them as they go,
in every thought of theirs coming to meet them.

The word of the Lord.

R. For you my soul is thirsting, O God, my God.

O God, you are my God, for you I long;
for you my soul is thirsting.

My body pines for you

like a dry, weary land without water. R.

So I gaze on you in the sanctuary
to see your strength and your glory.

For your love is better than life,
my lips will speak your praise. R.

So I will bless you all my life,
in your name I will lift up my hands.
My soul shall be filled as with a banquet,
my mouth shall praise you with joy. R.

On my bed I remember you.
On you I muse through the night
for you have been my help;
in the shadow of your wings I rejoice. R.

Alleluia, alleluia! Stay awake and stand ready, because you do not know the hour when the Son of Man is coming.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew (25:1-13)

Jesus told this parable to his disciples: 'The kingdom of heaven will be like this: Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were sensible: the foolish ones did take their lamps, but they brought no oil, whereas the sensible ones took flasks of oil as well as their lamps. The bridegroom was late, and they all grew drowsy and fell asleep. But at midnight there was a cry, "The bridegroom is here! Go out and meet him." At this, all those bridesmaids woke up and trimmed their lamps, and the foolish ones said to the sensible ones, "Give us some of your oil: our lamps are going out." But they replied, "There may not be enough for us and for you; you had better go to those who sell it and buy some for yourselves." They had gone off to buy it when the bridegroom arrived. Those who were ready went in with him to the wedding hall and the door was closed. The other bridesmaids arrived later. "Lord, Lord," they said "open the door for us." But he replied, "I tell you solemnly, I do not know you." So stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour.'

Advent Reflection Group

As the days grow shorter and Advent approaches:

Would you like to take time to pause?

- To spend time with God during this strangest of years...
- To gather ideas for prayer alone or with others?

If so, why not join our advent reflection group, running every Thursday for four weeks from 26th Nov. until 17th Dec.?

We will be holding a group online as well as providing materials for you to use at home, alone or with those you live with.
