THE BODY AND BLOOD OF JESUS

FIRST READING: A reading from the book of Exodus (24:3-8)

Moses went and told the people all the commands of the Lord and all the ordinances. In answer, all the people said with one voice, 'We will observe all the commands that the Lord has decreed.' Moses put all the commands of the Lord into writing, and early next morning he built an altar at the foot of the mountain, with twelve standing stones for the twelve tribes of Israel. Then he directed certain young Israelites to offer holocausts and to immolate bullocks to the Lord as communion sacrifices. Half of the blood Moses took up and put into basins, the other half he cast on the altar. And taking the Book of the Covenant he read it to the listening people, and they said, 'We will observe all that the Lord has decreed; we will obey.' Then Moses took the blood and cast it towards the people. 'This' he said 'is the blood of the Covenant that the Lord has made with you, containing all these rules.' The word of the Lord

The cup of salvation I will raise; I will call on the Lord's name.

How can I repay the Lord
for his goodness to me?

The cup of salvation I will raise;
I will call on the Lord's name. R.

O precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of his faithful.

Your servant, Lord, your servant am I;
you have loosened my bonds. R.

A thanksgiving sacrifice I make:
I will call on the Lord's name.

My vows to the Lord I will fulfil before all his people. R.

Alleluia, alleluia! I am the living bread which has come down from heaven, says the Lord; Anyone who eats this bread will live for ever. Alleluia!

GOSPEL A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb was sacrificed, his disciples said to Jesus, 'Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the Passover?' So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them 'Go into the city and you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, and say to the owner of the house which he enters, "The Master says: Where is my dining room in which I can eat the Passover with my disciples?" He will show you a large upper room furnished with couches, all prepared. Make the preparations for us there.' The disciples set out and went to the city and found everything as he had told them, and prepared the Passover.

And as they were eating he took some bread, and when he had said the blessing he broke it and gave it to them. 'Take it,' he said 'this is my body.' Then he took a cup, and when he had returned thanks he gave it to them, and all drank from it, and he said to them, 'This is my blood, the blood of the covenant, which is to be poured out for many. I tell you solemnly, I shall not drink any more wine until the day I drink the new wine in the kingdom of God.' After psalms had been sung they left for the Mount of Olives.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Corpus Christi

Today's Solemnity celebrates the abiding presence of the risen Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. The bread and wine, after the Rite of Consecration, is no longer what they appear to be, but the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of the Risen Christ, who is transubstantiated in it. The Eucharist is rooted in the OT Passover meal. Jesus is the sacrificial Lamb of God prefigured in the Old Testament Passover. Unless the flesh of that Passover sacrificial lamb was consumed, the members of the household would not be saved from death. As the Passover was the Old Covenant, so the Eucharist became the New Covenant. They who prayerfully receive the Lord in the Eucharist receive from him his gift of Easter Life -in this world and for the next.

St Columba of Iona 9th June

2021 is the 1500th anniversary of the birth of St Columba

Columba is a reminder to us that the Scots come from Ireland and that when he comes to Iona he comes to his own people. From them he will go out to preach the gospel to the Picts and through him they come to Christ. I doing so in time he will unite our country into what is now Scotland

Prayer of St Columba

Be O Lord,
a guiding star above me,
a smooth path below me,
a kindly shepherd behind me
and a bright flame before me;
today, tonight and forever.
Amen.
