Church Cleaning

New volunteers to clean the Church are now needed. The commitment is to once every 4 or 5 weeks for around 1 – 2 hours, depending on how many people come forward for each team. If you have some time, then please speak to me or Tricia Nicolson. We have a beautiful church, and it stays that way because of your commitment. Every blessing Fr Basil.

Primary 7 Confirmations

These are postponed because of positive tests for Covid 19 amongst some pupils in the class. Consequently, the whole class is to self-isolate. These will now need to be done individually at Sunday Mass or in small groups throughout the summer. Please contact me on 0131 665 2137 or basilijclark@msn.com to discuss possible dates and times. Please continue to remember our school in your prayers. Fr B

*Walk with me, oh my Lord,
Through the darkest night and brightest day
Be at my side, oh Lord,
Hold my hand and guide me on my way.*

Sometimes the road seems long,
My energy is spent.
Then, Lord, I think of you
And I am given strength

Just as you calmed the wind
And walked upon the sea
Conquer, my living Lord
The storms that threaten me.

FIRST READING A reading from the book of Job

From the heart of tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said:

Who pent up the sea behind closed doors
when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb, when I wrapped it in a robe of mist
and made black clouds its swaddling bands;
when I marked the bounds it was not to cross
and made it fast with a bolted gate?
Come thus far, I said, and no farther:
here your proud waves shall break.

The word of the Lord.

O give thanks to the Lord, for his love endures for ever.

Some sailed to the sea in ships to trade on the mighty waters.
These men have seen the Lord's deeds,
the wonders he does in the deep. R.

For he spoke; he summoned the gale,
tossing the waves of the sea
up to heaven and back into the deep;
their soul melted away in their distress. R.

Then they cried to the Lord in their need and he rescued them from their distress.
He stilled the storm to a whisper:
all the waves of the sea were hushed. R.

They rejoiced because of the calm and he led them to the haven they desired.
Let them thank the Lord for his love,
the wonders he does for men. R.

Alleluia, alleluia! May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our mind so that we can see what hope his call holds for us. Alleluia!

GOSPEL A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark (4:35-41)

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.' The Gospel of the Lord

Offertory Hymn

Be still my soul the Lord is on thy side
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to your God to order and provide;
In every change He faithful will remain.
Be still my soul your best, your heavenly friend,
Through thorny ways, leads to a joyful end.

Be still, my soul, your God will undertake
To guide the future as He has the past.
Your hope, Your confidence let nothing shake,
All now mysterious shall be clear at last.
Be still, my soul, the tempest still obey
His voice, who ruled them once on Galilee.
