A series on Inclusion in the Catholic Church

A small group from the parishes of St. John's and St. Mary Magdalene's was stimulated by the synodality conversations last year to organise a series of four early evening events. The series is entitled 'East Edinburgh Conversations: Looking at inclusion in the Catholic Church'.

The first of these evenings took place from 6.15 to 7.45 pm on Wednesday 3 May in Bellfield Hall, 16b Bellfield Street, EH15 2BP.

Our speaker will be Rosa Murray* on the theme 'Journeying towards a welcoming church' and the evening will include the opportunity for discussion after the presentation.

All are very welcome. Doors will open at 5.45pm when tea and coffee will be available.

* Rosa is a member of the Scottish Laity Network core group, and in her professional life is the Depute Head of Institute for Education, Teaching & Leadership at Moray House School of Education, University of Edinburgh.

St Vincent De Paul

With the cost of living crisis affecting everyone's living standards please be aware that the SSVF is available to provide assistance and all requests are treated in confidence.

If help is required please contact Beth McFarlane/Bob Murdoch or the parish office.

Celebrate Marriage

On Wednesday 31 May at 7:15pm the Archbishop will celebrate a special Mass for Married and Engaged Couples at the Cathedral. All married and engaged couples are very welcome to come on the night and celebrate the gift of marriage.

After the Mass there will be a celebratory reception in Coffee Saints to which everyone attending the Mass is invited. If you are celebrating a significant anniversary this year, or know couples who are, do let us know so that we can send a personal invitation. Please submit names, address and number of years being celebrated to Fr Jeremy Milne, vemarriage@staned.org.uk, 0131 334 1693.

Asylum Seeker Refugee Migrant

Each month as many as 5 children under 18 arrive in Scotland without parents, or guardians, seeking sanctuary from the most challenging of situations in the hope of a safe, supportive, fresh start.
